MARSEIL “ACTION” JACKSON

AWARD-WINNING ENTREPRENEUR · RADIO PERSONALITY · COMMUNITY ADVOCATE

Marseil “Action” Jackson is an award-winning Chicago entrepreneur, radio personality and community advocate who has spent two decades building businesses and opportunity on the city’s West Side, where he was born and raised. He started his first business at 15 and founded the Jackson Action Coalition at 21 to bring generations together through outreach, services and events. In 2021 he opened The Dream Center, a co-working and business support hub in Austin’s Soul City Corridor, a Black-owned business district. Every weekday he hosts The Brunch Bunch on Inspiration 1390AM, an iHeartRadio station. His ventures also include the Dream Builders Foundation and Soul City Collective. The Merri Dee Foundation’s 2026 Radio Personality of the Year and a 2023 Chicago Defender Man of Excellence, he leads the Leaders Network’s business division and has been featured on WGN, NBC, ABC7 and FOX 32. His mission is simple: serve, inspire and build generational wealth through action.
